SENATOR BEUTLER: ...qualify?

SENATOR BOHLKE: They also have a very large amount of federal land.

SENATOR BEUTLER: They have a large amount of federal land?

SENATOR BOHLKE: And so when they have that they can't...

SENATOR BEUTLER: What kind of federal land is that that...

SENATOR BOHLKE: In Minatare?

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...in Minatare? Minatare.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Who represents Minatare?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Smith. Okay, but they have a large amount of federal land and does...and all of these...does Minatare then get impact aid of some type also?

SENATOR BOHLKE: Any school district that has federal land and have students residing on that federal land would receive impact aid.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. And the impact aid is based upon a per student stipend?

SENATOR BOHLKE: I remember one time doing something on the impact aid and it's the federal government figure how...how the school districts get the impact aid. I know that the per pupil is part of it, but I believe it's a little more complicated and I can't explain it to you. But it certainly takes into effect, because I know that at one time when I was on the board of education in Hastings as long as we had students out on the Navy depot land we got some impact aid.

SENATOR BEUTLER: The...the...is the impact aid designed to take into account taxable property in the district?

SENATOR BOHLKE: I believe that that's the intent, is to look at
